| UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, v. ERIK ROBERT HARPER, Defendant. | MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT’S MOTION FOR EARLY TERMINATION OF SUPERVISED RELEASE Case No. 2:12-CR-10 TS District Judge Ted Stewart |
|--|--|

This matter is before the Court on Defendant’s Motion for Early Termination of Supervised Release. For the reasons discussed below, the Court will grant the Motion.

I. BACKGROUND

On July 9, 2012, Defendant pleaded guilty to possession of child pornography. On November 5, 2012, Defendant was sentenced to a term of 37 months in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons, to be followed by 60 months of supervised release.

Defendant began his term of supervision on September 19, 2014. In his Motion, Defendant represents that he has complied with the terms of his supervised release. Defendant states that he has maintained gainful employment and has not violated the terms of his supervision. Consultation with Defendant’s supervising officer confirms that Defendant has complied with the terms of supervision and has successfully completed sex-offender treatment. The United States has indicated it has no objection to Defendant’s request.

II. DISCUSSION

18 U.S.C. § 3583(e) permits the Court to terminate supervised release at any time after a defendant has completed at least one year of supervised release, but prior to completion of the entire term, if the Court is satisfied that such action is (1) warranted by the conduct of an offender and (2) is in the interest of justice. In making this determination, the Court is directed to consider the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), to the extent they are applicable.

Having considered these factors, reviewed the docket and case file, and consulted with Defendant's supervising officer, the Court finds that early termination of Defendant's term of supervised release is both warranted by the conduct of the offender and in the interest of justice.

III. CONCLUSION

It is therefore

ORDERED that Defendant's Motion for Early Termination of Supervised Release (Docket No. 38) is GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that Defendant's term of supervised release shall be terminated effective immediately and this case shall be closed.

DATED this 6th day of March, 2018.

BY THE COURT:

Ted Stewart
United States District Judge
